Good morning [Redacted]

In response to your query below I would confirm that there are no planning applications pending or consented on or relating to the area within the red boundary shown on your attached plan and that the Council has not received any prior notifications for permitted development consent in relation to agricultural development or any other activity within or relating to this area.

I trust this is of assistance.

Dear Planning

Further to my call with [REDACTED] this afternoon, I would be grateful if you could confirm by email that there are no planning applications pending or consented on or relating to the area within the red boundary and that you have not received any prior notifications for Permitted Development consent in relation to agricultural development or any other activity within or relating to this area

We are aware that trees have been felled within this land parcel which is centred at NS 6630 5519 and we are required under the Forestry & Land Management Bill (2018) to establish whether or not an exemption is in place. A prompt response would therefore be most welcome to allow us to progress as required within our regulatory remit

Kind Regards

[REDACTED]
